GUEST PERFORMERS

Dadadadan Tenko

Commencing
7:30pm approx.

This taiko ensemble group was founded in Osaka in 1987. The group became famous for their unique style of performance, fusing "wadaiko" (Japanese drums), a traditional Japanese musical instrument into dramatic performance. The group has performed in Europe, the Middle East Asia and many other countries. Their cooperative performances with a range of other styles of music and arts including Japanese traditional dance and rock music amongst other styles have also been acclaimed by many.

A variety of other performers from around the country
